The United States Attorney charges:

COUNT 1

On or about July 25, 2001, in the Central Division of the District of Utah and elsewhere,

JOSHUA LINSK,
defendant herein, with intent to extort money from a person, firm, association, and corporation, did transmit in interstate commerce communications containing threats to injure the reputation of a Utah company, to wit, LINSK threatened to disclose certain information that LINSK believed would harm the company's reputation if the company did not pay LINSK $850 (eight hundred and fifty dollars);

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 875(d).
